

Yellow is the colour of the heart's delight
The sun in the day and the stars of the night
The daffodils in Spring
Little birds on the wing
Willow-warblers and finches
The insects that sting
With their bright yellow streaks and their humming that speaks of their pure honey sweet.
Summer's shimmering heat
Waving fields full of wheat
All is yellow and bright
All is zinging and light
Winter's dull days are over
We're rolling in clover
We're bursting with yellow
We're ripe and we're mellow
The whole world's alright.

Kath Barber after a visit to Dove Valley