

PARODY OF COMPASSION

“There, there, there,
you know I care.”

“Talk it over, work it through,
let it go, others do.”

“Look at you, you’re alright, there’s people in a much worse plight.”

“That’s enough of being down,
come on smile, don’t frown.”

“Why are you always feeling so sad?
Mental illness? Are you mad?”

“Have you heard, she’s sick in the head!
I’m not going near her, I could wind up dead!”
